Exchange Studies

Faculty of Business Administration & Economics at Heinrich Heine University Düsseldorf

Heinrich Heine University Düsseldorf

- Founded in 1965
- More than 29 000 students across five faculties
- A modern campus covering over 1.3 million m²
- Ranked 251–300th in Times Higher Education World University Ranking 2026

“Excellent, Flexible, Personal, International”

Welcome to the Faculty of Business Administration and Economics at Heinrich Heine University Düsseldorf! Our Exchange Studies offer international students an enriching academic experience in a welcoming and supportive environment. We combine excellence in teaching and research with high academic standards and dedicated personal support. At the same time, we foster an open, international learning atmosphere that encourages exchange, curiosity, and new perspectives.

The Four Pillars of Our Exchange Studies

Excellence

- Courses taught by internationally recognized scholars
- Small class sizes foster intensive interaction
- Balance of theory and practice creates engaging learning experience

Flexibility

- Broad selection of modules
- Parts of modules can be attended
- Different forms of exams (written, oral, presentations), allow students to show their individual strengths

Personal Support

- Central coordination and weekly office hours
- Direct contact to lecturers ensure individual guidance and support

International Community

- A diverse and welcoming environment brings together students from all over the world
- Over 4.000 international students, 350 Erasmus and 150 International partnerships at HHU

Contact

Heinrich Heine University Düsseldorf

Faculty of Business Administration and Economics

Universitätsstr. 1
40225 Düsseldorf

Faculty International

June 2026

The City of Düsseldorf

- Capital of North Rhine-Westphalia
- Around 640,000 residents from 184 countries
- Up to 5 million visitors a year
- More than 4.000 restaurants, bars, cafés and clubs

Contact

Heinrich Heine University Düsseldorf

Faculty of Business Administration and Economics

Universitätsstr. 1
40225 Düsseldorf

Faculty International

June 2026

Study Fields

Our faculty offers a broad selection of modules and courses suitable for exchange students. Through close cooperation with other faculties at HHU, we offer particularly diverse study opportunities that extend beyond traditional business and economics subjects.

Selected Modules in Core Fields

Business Administration

- Accounting
- Controlling and Taxation
- Finance
- Marketing
- Corporate Management
- Environment and Society

Economics

- European Economic Policy
- Competition and Regulatory Policy
- Behavioral Economics
- Monetary Economics

Statistics and Data Analysis

- Statistics & Econometrics
- Data Science
- Machine Learning

Selected Courses in Interdisciplinary Fields

Law

Business Law, European Law, International Law

Philosophy, Politics and Economics (PPE)

Interdisciplinary courses on Ethics, Politics and Society

Languages

Language courses for academic and personal development

Cultural Studies

Modern Japan and other cross-faculty courses

Organizational Issues

Module Structure

Modules consist of several courses, allowing exchange students to flexibly design their studies. A typical module includes lectures, tutorials, and seminars. Students may complete full modules, select individual courses from a module, or register for parts of a course to meet their home university's requirements. Exchange Students can attend courses taught in both German and English. A list of all English modules and courses is available here.

Examinations

Each course or module includes a specific form of assessment, such as a written exam, presentation, or other course-related requirement. By selecting from different courses and modules, exchange students can choose assessment formats that suit their preferences. In many cases, students may also complete a term paper as an alternative or additional form of assessment.

Coordination

Exchange students are welcomed with an orientation session at the beginning of the semester. Central coordination and weekly office hours ensure clear communication and continuous support from a single point of contact.

For further information, see our faculty film and our factsheet.